Marvel has released the first clip from The Avengers, decease which opens May 4th.

This clip features Scarlett Johansson as Natasha Romanoff (Black Widow) talking on the phone with Agent Coulson then kicking the shit out of some bad guys while tied to a chair. All this while wearing a nice low-cut number that encourages slow motion replay of the scene. Nice.

I have been geeking out over this movie since I saw the first trailer, and this clip has only served to increase my, um, desire more!

Enjoy!
